[Member First Name],

Founded by Illinois Farm Bureau in 1925, our history is rooted in Illinois agriculture. Since then, the COUNTRY Financial group has become the largest farm insurance writer in Illinois. While growing across 19 states, we've remained focused on helping protect the things most important to your livelihood with our insurance and financial offerings.

What's changing?

Current eligibility rules for COUNTRY Mutual Insurance Company® and COUNTRY Preferred Insurance Company® will change as follows:

- Beginning with policy renewals Jan. 1, 2025 and after, we'll still require an active Farm Bureau membership for farm-related policies and rates but will no longer require a Farm Bureau membership for all other policies.
- Current Farm Bureau membership requirements remain in place through Dec. 31, 2024.

How does this affect my insurance?

If your farm is insured with us, you'll need to keep your Farm Bureau membership active for that policy. We value our long-standing connection with Farm Bureau and the benefits our partnership brings to clients and the communities we serve. As always, your membership in Farm Bureau gives you exclusive access to our farm products and rates including, but not limited to, Farm (all)/AgriPlus®, Cargo, Crop Hail, Farm umbrella, and Farm-use auto.

Will I still be a Farm Bureau member?

Absolutely. Although we're changing the eligibility requirements for insurance, these changes do not affect your separate voting membership in Farm Bureau<sup>1</sup>, your membership benefits, or voting rights. Whether or not you have insurance with us, Farm Bureau works hard for Illinois agriculture, a top industry in the state, and they'll continue to send you membership renewal invoices.
